

SOCIETY DOINGS

Women's Organizations.

The City Federation of Women held their regular monthly meeting in the chamber of commerce on Monday afternoon with an enthusiastic and large attendance. Mrs. S. J. Fennell, first vice president of the federation, presided at the meeting. The membership campaign has started and three new names were taken in Mrs. Ray Harrell, Mrs. H. D. Hunsaker and Mrs. William Wallace. The chairman of the different committees gave their reports and then Mrs. Sutherland, chairman of the woman's committee of the Soil Products exposition was introduced. She spoke of the prizes which are being offered to the women for the best needle work, either plain or fancy, also for breads, cakes, jellies, preserves and other cooking. She made it clear there is to be no parade of decorated floats, but there is to be a military parade and the high school pageant. Mrs. C. E. Kelly resigned as president of the federation.

Weddings.

Sunday morning following church services, Rev. C. L. Overstreet united in marriage two members of the Hawaiian troupe that played at the Crawford for a short time. Following the ceremony they left with the rest of the company for California. Misses G. Beebe and Morris D. Alaba were the bride and groom. They were accompanied by the other members of the troupe.

Outings.

In a camping party that has just returned from the Glorieta after a two weeks stay were Dr. R. M. Hatfield, Dr. M. O. Wright, Dr. Howard Thompson, Judge P. E. Hunter, J. J. Kaster, F. B. Hadlock and E. Blumenthal.

Automobiling.

Among the recent motor trips taken during the past week Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Jolly took Misses Dorothy Condon (Pearl) and Misses Dorothy Condon and their son, Robert Jolly, to Elephant Butte dam for the week end. They made the trip in two cars.

READY FOR THE WINTER

We are all foregathering home, having been for the past few months scattered north, south, east and west. We have strolled through the pines and watched the sunset's glow through the branches; we have camped out and looked up from our blankets to the stars; we have listened to the breaking waves and eagerly felt for the pull on the fishing rod. Now it is work again, and work not simply for dollars, but for real sterling life.

Four things I want to do:
I. To read a real good book.
II. To have several nights at home per week.
III. To cultivate the inner self.
IV. To study some phase of social life.

Let us make the winter a useful one.
Next Sunday the Congregational church will reopen and at 11 a. m. the Rev. Miles Hanson will preach, subject: "Converting the negative into the central affirmative of religion."

FRENCH CHEERS FOR NEW ALLY

Paris, France, Aug. 28.—The entrance of Rumania into the war was received with popular rejoicing in Paris. For the first time in many months, newspapers were permitted to publish extra editions, and in half an hour all Paris had learned the news and the city was beflagged with the Rumanian colors.

Rumania Gives Reasons.

La Liberté has received from Geneva, a summary of the Rumanian declaration of war as telegraphed from Vienna.

In concluding the communication sets forth as follows: The motive impelling Rumania to enter the war against Austria is exposed to the hazards of war of invasion.

"First, Rumania declares that by intervening she can shorten the war.

"Third, Rumania places herself on the side of the powers which she believes to be the most effectively realizing her national ideal."

Berlin Acts Unconcerned.

Berlin, Germany, Aug. 28.—Although Germany's declaration of war against Rumania was absolutely unheeded, it failed to cause the slightest ripple of excitement in Berlin.

den, Mrs. Lupton and Miss Ingham. Mrs. G. C. Borden assisted Mrs. Williams in entertaining the little guests.

At the last meeting of the Young People's association, society of Trinity Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Danielson were the host and hostess.

They met on Friday afternoon at the Danielson home on North Florence street. Lighted pink candles in crystal holders, intermingled with pink gladioli in crystal vases, gave an even pink glow about the house.

Following the program, the host and hostess served the guests with home made cake and brick ice cream. Miss Dorothy Danielson and Mr. C. Ballard sang several vocal selections during the evening. The program opened with a scripture lesson reading by Basil Ryan, then a letter from Korea, by Mrs. J. J. Ayers.

Miss Lilla Thomas, from Mrs. E. Wharton, formerly Miss Ethel Taylor, Miss Rita Hefflin then read a paper on the subject of "The Power of the Word."

At one time spent two years among these people. Mrs. J. C. Ballard talked on the "parcel post sale," to be given for the benefit of the special missionary pledge. Miss Ernestine Murry gave a talk on social service. A quartet composed of Basil Ryan, Sergeant Danielson, Henry Barton, and several numbers. Those present were Misses Helen Ferguson, Byrd Ferguson, Rita Hefflin, Fleta Mae, Lucille Hefflin, Mrs. Dorothy Danielson, Lilla Thomas, Rita Thomas, Lilla Shaw, Mammie Bailey, Jamie Brown, Ernestine Murry and Margaret White.
